

Funding options for self-funding students

Erasmus+

Semester: 2nd and 3rd semester

Length: 12 months in total (of Erasmus+ funding)

Type: study/research track and internship

Erasmus+ funding can be used for both study/research track (2nd/3rd semester) and internship (3rd semester). Each student can use 12 months in total, it is up to the student how they are going to use it.

Example: student decides to apply for Erasmus+ funding for 2nd semester and then apply for Erasmus+ funding for the internship in the 3rd semester.

Erasmus+ funding can be used within the EU only.

Please note that the sum of money for each month covers only part of the overall monthly expenses you might have! Erasmus+ funding is meant to support you in your studies and to help to cover part of your living expenses.

In year 2020 the sum was 519 EUR per month for study exchange, and 699 EUR per month for the internship.

To receive this funding it is necessary to have a bank account in the Czech republic, and the funding is sent in one or two parts at once.

Erasmus+ Alumni internship funding

Semester: after graduation

Length: 12 months in total (of Erasmus+ funding)

Type: internship

In your 2nd year of study you can also apply for alumni/after graduation Erasmus+ internship funding. All the conditions, information and requirements are the same as with regular Erasmus+ funding.

PLEASE NOTE: as this is part of Erasmus+ programme, it counts into the 12 months in total of Erasmus+. This means you should decide in advance and very carefully how you want to divide those 12 months you can use.

Freemover mobility at Faculty of Arts

Semester: 3rd semester

Lenght: max. of 10 months

Type: 3rd semester research track outside Europe

Freemover mobility is offered by Faculty of Arts. It is possible to use this funding when going for the 3rd semester at one of the four non-Europe partner universities.

The sum of money depends on the average living costs of chosen country, and up to 20 000,- CZK per month (around 750 EUR per month). It also depends one the overall amount of money allocated to this type of mobility by the Faculty of Arts.

Palacký University funding – internships

Semester: 3rd semester

Lenght: 6 months

Type: intership

Internship funding option offered by Palacký University. This type of funding can be used to help cover your costs for your 3rd semester internship in non-Erasmus+ country, for example Switzerland, USA, Canada, Australia, Japand and many more. But in case of Euroculture the institution have to be connected to the Europe in some way.

The sum per months is calculated depending on the country you will do the internship in. You will also receive a financial benefit to help you cover the travel costs. This depends on the distance from Olomouc.
